

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Farmers markets are growing each year in communities all across South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Farmers markets offer consumers farm-fresh, affordable, convenient produce such as sweet corn, melons, tomatoes, apples, other great fruits and vegetables, eggs, beef, chicken, and a variety of meats; and,

Whereas, Supporting local farmers markets financially supports South Dakota's producers and helps strengthen our rural communities; and,

Whereas, Farmers markets allow producers and consumers to interact in sharing their stories and educating consumers on how and where their food is produced; and,

Whereas, Relationships between producers and consumers are an important communication tool, lead to better understanding, and accentuate the direct marketing concept; and,

Whereas, Farmers markets offer producers across the state a chance to participate in their community and to enhance perceptions of wholesome life and sound agricultural practices; and,

Whereas, Local governments, community leaders, and private businesses have welcomed farmers markets as a way of keeping their communities healthy and more dollars in the local economy; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to encourage all citizens to celebrate the benefits of farmers markets and our state's producers who, while providing for our needs, are among the best stewards of our land:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of August 7-13, 2016, as in South Dakota, and to further the expansion and awareness of farmers markets and the contributions farmers make to daily life in America.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-seventh Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.
